

Employee Assistance Program

Updated August 2017

All full-time and pro rata faculty and full-time, pro rata, and benefit-eligible part-time staff and members of their immediate households may use the services of the TriHealth Employee Assistance Program, providing assessment, short-term counseling, referral and follow up service to assist employees in resolving personal problems and concerns. All services are offered to faculty, staff and household members free of charge.