THE S. JEAN PATRICE HARRINGTON, SC AWARD

Named in honor of past MSJ President, S. Jean Patrice Harrington, this award is given at commencement to a GRADUATE student who has been an example of the University mission and shown consistent persistence, improvement and continued academic diligence while enduring life challenges.

Nominations will be accepted from faculty and staff members who will detail in an essay:

- The challenges faced by the nominee.
- A description regarding the ways that the nominee has responded successfully to those challenges.

Students are encouraged to make faculty or staff members aware of their eligibility for this award and agree to be nominated.

Send to: Heather Crabbe, Associate Provost for Academic Support
