

II. STUDENT LIFE

FOOD SERVICES

AVI is America's largest, family-owned and operated food and hospitality provider, serving prestigious clients in the business, education, healthcare and leisure sectors. For questions contact AVI at 513-244-4633.

All resident students are required to have a meal plan. Meal counts for resident student meal plans return to zero on Sunday mornings. The cost of guest meals in the Fifth Third Dining Hall will be deducted from a resident student's Flex Dollar balance. Commuter Meal Plans are also available and can be purchased through AVI Food systems at the Fifth Third Dining Hall.

For more information on Meal Plans or Meal Plan periods, visit: <https://www.msj.edu/tuition-aid/tuition-costs/meal-plans/index.html>. Meals and other food items are served in the following locations:

The student ID Card is not transferable and must always be presented to use your meal plan. Students cannot pass their ID card on to another person for use in the food service venues regardless of how many meals are remaining or unused on the plan. Students with a meal plan may purchase a meal for another individual with their flex dollars but MUST be present with their ID card at the point of purchase. If you have any allergies or dietary concerns, please contact General Manager, Sharon Wiest, at 513-244-4633 to set up a meeting to discuss. AVI takes great pride in ensuring that all students can enjoy wholesome, delicious meals that meet their specific needs.
