

Performance Evaluations

All employees will regularly receive an evaluation of their performance based upon the performance management system designed and implemented by the University. Copies of such evaluations are maintained by the Office of Human Resources.