

Salary Increases and Changes

---

Salary Increases

Decisions regarding salary increases are made as part of the annual University budgeting process.

Salary Changes

Compensation for each position is determined by the appropriate salary scale and by the years of service of the individual in the position. Changes in employment may result in a salary increase or reduction based on the new position's placement on the salary scale.