

THE DAVE SCHARFENBERGER SERVICE AWARD

This award is given in honor of Dave Scharfenberger, the first Service Learning Coordinator at the Mount. The recipient is a student who has exceptional service to the University and the Greater Cincinnati Community. Special consideration is given to those students involved in the Plus One Service Credit Program, a Service Immersion Trip or a service-oriented club or organization.

AWARD CRITERIA

- Devotion of time and energy to the service of others.
- Demonstration of exceptional initiative, leadership and creativity.
- Impact of that service, particularly the range and extent to which other students and/or community members are involved in or benefit from the service.
- Quality and clarity of the applicant's response to the essay question.
- Confidential recommendations from a faculty member and a community resource person (using the Honors Recommendation Form).

Special consideration will be given to applicants involved in Service Learning, Campus Ministry, and other University or University club sponsored events.

No student may receive this award more than once while a student at Mount St. Joseph University.

Please answer the following essay question. Your essay should be no longer than 500 words.

Please describe service programs or opportunities you have helped to initiate at Mount St. Joseph University. How have these programs supported the mission of the University? In addition, please share other service opportunities you have pursued which demonstrate creativity as well as your commitment to the integration of life and learning through service to others. Be sure to include a reflection on what you have learned personally through your service.

By submitting this form, I hereby give permission for the Service Learning Awards Committee to verify my good academic standing, credit hour status and co-curricular involvement. I understand that I must be a current undergraduate student at Mount St. Joseph University to be eligible for recognition.
