

Social Security

All faculty and staff are covered by Social Security. The University is required to withhold Social Security and Medicare tax from salaries or wages of all employees except student workers during periods of full-time enrollment.