

Unemployment Insurance

---

Unemployment benefits are provided as required by law to eligible faculty and staff no longer in the employ of the University. The University provides benefits through the State of Ohio as a self-insured employer. Eligibility for and amount of benefits are determined by the State of Ohio Department of Job and Family Services.