

University Forum

The University Forum is a gathering of all University personnel and will meet as needed. The purpose of the University Forum is to provide input and discussion on important campus-wide issues. It also provides a forum for dissemination of important information to the University as a whole regarding goals, objectives, programs, and activities.

Responsibility for planning and scheduling University Forums rests with the President.