Personal Vehicle Policy

University faculty and staff are encouraged to use Mount transportation whenever possible when transporting students. When a faculty or staff member chooses to transport students or other faculty or staff members in their own personal vehicle for an MSJ affiliated event or purpose the Personal vehicle policy shall apply. Personal vehicles may be used but only after all parties have a clear understanding of the insurance coverage issues as follows.

If a student uses their own personal vehicle to transport others for MSJ affiliated events, the University does not insure or accept liability for any damage, loss or injury resulting from the use of a student participant's vehicle. Students who use their own personal autos should have auto liability insurance on their vehicle and should have a valid driver's license. Participants who chose to ride in a private automobile do so voluntarily and at their own risk.

If faculty/staff use their own personal vehicle the individual's personal auto liability insurance will have to respond up to its limits of liability. If the University determines the vehicle was being used for the furtherance of University business at the time of the loss, the University's Auto Liability Plan will provide liability limits in excess of the individual's personal auto liability. Under no circumstances will Mount St. Joseph University or its insurer provide coverage for damage to the faculty/staff's personal vehicle (i.e., "auto physical damage"). In addition, faculty/staff should have a valid driver's license. Participants who choose to ride in a private automobile do so voluntarily and at their own risk.

Bus Chartering Policy

At times a department or organization may need to charter a bus from a third party because our own bus/driver is not available. When chartering a bus the organization/advisor must choose a safe and reliable company vetted in consultation with the Office of Public Safety/Campus Police and/or the Chief Compliance and Risk Officer.

Vehicle Rental

At times a department or organization may need to rent a car or van for University business or student organization travel. Such rentals should be secured through Enterprise and rented in the name of Mount St. Joseph University. Rentals in the name of individual students and/or employees are NOT covered under University insurance.
